MAUI MUSIC AND DRAMA

Waikuku, June 7.—The younger members of the June term jury gave a concert last Thursday evening in the Waikuku Union schoolhouse under the management of Sam Kellin. The audience was not very large, owing to failure to advertise. However, the entertainment passed off very pleasantly and those present enjoyed the program immensely.

The opening number was a piano solo by Mrs. T. B. Lyons, who most graciously responded to an encore to satisfy the thirst of the audience for high class music.

W. J. Coelho, born and raised at Waikuku, sang several songs most acceptably and was encored several times before he finally disappeared behind the scenery. A sextet of Puunene colored ladies and gentlemen next favored the audience with a rendition of jubilee songs that were sung in Tennessee many years ago. C. D. Lufkin likewise played in very effective manner a cornet solo with piano accompaniment by G. B. Schraeder.

This Saturday evening, the Waikuku Dramatic Club will present the comedy known as "Vacation." Several of the well known local talents will assist.

Next Wednesday evening, Miss Rowena Richardson of Lahaina will give a concert at the Waikuku church for the benefit of the Sunday schools that will convene at Lahaina next month. Mrs. T. B. Lyons, W. J. Coelho and a quartet of male singers from Waikuku will take part in the exercises. Miss Richardson promises that the concert will be a grand affair and every effort will be exerted to make it so. Comic and pathetic songs are on the program to suit the varying taste of the audience.

ADVICE TO YOUNG BASE-BALL PLAYERS

BY CONNIE MACK,

Manager of the Philadelphia American League Club.

Players Should Vary Their Method of Sliding to Bases.

There are many ways used in base sliding. Those most successfully made are with head and feet first. The player who slides to base with his feet foremost is the most dangerous, and as a result less liable to be touched by the fielder. He is consequently the most successful in base stealing. All ball players wear spikes in their shoes, and occasionally a fielder is accidentally spiked. As a rule these injuries are really serious, and often result in a player being laid off for several weeks. After being spiked once the player is doubly careful not to feel the spikes on his limbs or feet a second time. In the case of the player who slides feet foremost the fielder understands he is doubly liable to injury, and will not take the same desperate chances he would if the player should slide head first. In close decisions this is more than ever the case. A player is easily blocked off who slides with his head foremost. If the ball is ahead of the runner the basemen's task is comparatively easy. When the basemen knows the runner will surely slide head foremost he will have more confidence in making the put-out.

A player, however, should not confine himself to any particular style of sliding, but should change frequently so as to keep the basemen guessing what to expect, and this will prove a great advantage to the runner. After starting, the runner should pay no attention to anything but the base ahead of him. That is his objective point, and his thoughts should be centered on how to reach it safely. Many players have a bad habit of watching the ball. This lessens the speed of the runner and prevents him from making the slide at the right distance.

HILO AND WAILUKU GIANTS TO BATTLE

At Wells Park Wailuku, Maui, Wednesday Next.

TWO TEAMS HAVE BEEN PICKED WITH GREAT CARE

Special Grand Stand Has Been Erected For Great Event -- Hiiloites Will Do Their Best.

Wailuku, June 7.—Manager E. M. Brown of the Hiilo baseball team and his boys are here from the Rainy City to play ball. They came as expected in the steamer Kinai last evening, and the great game between the Hiilo and the Maui will come off at Wells Park, Wailuku, Wednesday afternoon, June 11.

Bright and early this morning, the Hiilo boys were on the diamond hard at work for the great event and they went at it with the zeal and energy for which Hiiloites are famous. It did not take them long to get used to the ground. The way the heavy hitters sent the ball flying in all directions filled the home team with surprise. "They are truly wonderful players," were the words that the wondering admirers uttered.

The home team is beginning to feel that they are to meet with a foe worthy of their steel. The grounds are now in excellent condition and a game of unusual interest is in store for everybody. People will be here from all parts of the island to witness the game and no doubt they will be repaid for their trouble.

The nine that will defend the honors of Maui have been judiciously selected by Captain W. H. Cornwell Jr., from among the four clubs of the Maui Baseball League, the Morning Stars, Puu-nene, Waikuku and Maui Alerts. David Crowell has most kindly offered his services to build a grand stand on the grounds with a capacity for over 200 people. It will be ready next Wednesday.

An attempt has been made to play the best two out of three games but without success, so only one final game will be played.

Mr. Brown said this morning that his team is here to play ball but he does not expect to win although they will do their best. The home team feel the same, for when two opposing teams of almost equal capacity come together, it is really difficult to foretell the outcome. The game will undoubtedly be full of excitement. Following is the make-up of the opposing teams:

Hiilo—Ben Spalding, c.; E. M. Brown (captain), p.; D. Baker, 1b.; T. M. Rowland, 2b.; Hermann Ludloff, 3b.; Willie Ragsdale, ss.; Ed. Kalaue, rf.; Ben Brown, of.; Henry Kahaule, lf.

Maui—Geo. H. Cummings, c.; Chas. Thompson, p.; W. H. Cornwell Jr., (captain), 1b.; W. Yates, 2b.; A. Enos, 3b.; Julian Yates, ss.; G. Henderson, lf.; Wm. Searle, cf.; Jno. Holt, rf. Subs, L. R. Crook, W. R. Boote.

The Maui Athletic Association will give a banquet next Wednesday evening, after the game, in honor of the visiting team, when the victors and vanquished will give the reasons why they either won or lost the game.

MAUI FAIR COMMITTEE

Wailuku, Maui, June 4.—Sheriff L. M. Baldwin called a meeting of Wailuku citizens at the Wailuku courthouse last Wednesday evening, June 4, for the purpose of electing a permanent committee of three from the island of Maui to act together with permanent committee on Oahu whose duty it will be to see that the Territory of Hawaii is well represented at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis in 1904.

Judge John W. Kalua was called to the chair and Jas. N. K. Keola was made secretary of the meeting. Mr. Baldwin explained the object of the meeting as above stated. The following names were nominated to serve on committee: Messrs. H. P. Baldwin, D. Baldwin, A. N. Kepoika, R. C. Searle, D. C. Lindsay, Chas. Copp, E. H. Bailey and W. H. Cornwell Jr.

There being eight nominees, ballots were prepared. Judge Kalua announced the result and declared the following gentlemen elected: A. N. Kepoika (chairman), D. D. Baldwin and R. C. Searle. The meeting then adjourned.

DIVORCE IN HIGH LIFE.

Wailuku, June 7.—The wife of a prominent citizen of Lahaina is suing for divorce. The papers are on file at the office of the Circuit Court of the Second Circuit and the attorney for petitioner will likely move for a hearing at the present time of court. The answer of libellee is also on file. The parties belong to the oldest and best families of the Breadfruit town.

Crows have no fewer than twenty-seven different cries, each distinctly referable to a different action.
